Election System Security

There has been a lot of discussion about tabulation system security in the media in recent days. On Monday, we participated in a call with the Department of Homeland Security, the Elections Assistance Commission, the National Institute for Science and Technology, and the Department of Justice. We will be working proactively with DHS and others to increase our awareness of potential threats and develop and gather new best practices.

Below you'll find links to a recent interview Secretary Wyman gave regarding system security, our talking points, and other valuable resources.

We will keep you posted and involved as discussions continue.
